Broderick "Ricky" Jones was born March 9, 1955 to the late Joseph and Eugenia (Bunkley) Jones in Birmingham, AL. He accepted Christ at an early age. He was a proud graduate of both Our Lady of Fatima Catholic School and Woodlawn High School. He continued his education and football career at Tuskegee University. He was signed as an undrafted Free Agent with the Cleveland Browns in 1977. With the Browns, Ricky played linebacker from 1978-1982. He ended his professional football career with the Baltimore Colts from 1982-1984. He graduated from Tuskegee University in 1989 and was later inducted into the Tuskegee University Athletic Hall of Fame (Class of 2003).

Once playing was over, Ricky renewed his love for the game by becoming a college coach. He was a defensive skills coach at several universities: Liberty University, University of Alabama at Birmingham, Tuskegee University, Miles College, and Kentucky State University.
